THOMAS A. GRECO

Tom Greco is CEO of Hilco Valuation & Industrial Services. Regarded as both a highly effective business executive and deeply skilled lending expert, Tom has over 30 years of financial services experience. As a leading expert on asset valuation methodologies as well as asset values across a broad range of business sectors, Tom has led valuation and lending teams on major financings for companies across numerous industries, including retail, metals, technology, automotive and transportation.

Tom has managed large business groups on a global scale and he holds a Six Sigma Black Belt in quality management. For many years as an executive in the asset-based lending industry, Tom was a customer of Hilco Global, where he developed a unique perspective on the requisites of a best-in-class valuation services provider. Today, those fundamentals form the backbone of Tom's management strategy.

Before joining Hilco Global, Tom spent 15 years in various leadership roles within General Electric. Prior to joining GE, Tom was with Chemical Bank, National Westminster Bank and J.P. Morgan.

Tom received his MBA in finance from Fordham University and a bachelor's degree in business from SUNY Albany. He is a native New Yorker and currently lives in Highland Park, IL with his wife, Linda, and two daughters.

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

Thank you for joining us tonight to honor Thomas A. Greco and to support National Jewish Health.

The financial industries have long been at the forefront in providing funds to support this world-class institution. National Jewish Health is the only facility in the world dedicated exclusively to groundbreaking medical research and treatment of patients with respiratory, cardiac, immune and related disorders. Patients and families come to National Jewish Health from around the world to receive cutting-edge, comprehensive and coordinated care.

Did you know, National Jewish Health:

- Has been ranked #1 or #2 ranking in the Pulmonology category by U.S. News & World Report (since the category was added in 1997).
- Has more than 50 doctors named on various lists, including as “America’s Top Doctors” by Castle Connolly, Ltd.
- Is in the top 7 percent of institutions funded by the National Institutes of Health, an extraordinary achievement for an institution of its size.
- Is responsible for many important scientific advances, including the discovery of IgE, the molecule responsible for allergic reactions.
- Is the only medical institution in the country with a K-8 school located on its campus. The school, Morgridge Academy, serves children living with chronic illness.

Thank you for your support of National Jewish Health.

Have a wonderful evening!

#1 in Respiratory Care

Breathing Science is Life.®

Dear Friends,

Thank you for being a part of the Financial Industries Dinner benefiting National Jewish Health. Your involvement helps us in our mission to treat patients and research cures for some of the most devastating illnesses related to the lungs, the heart and immune disorders. You help us make a difference for children and adults across the nation and throughout the world.

Take a moment to look around. Every person you see takes breathing for granted, until they can't.

National Jewish Health has spent 120 years developing new tools for diagnosing and treating respiratory and related diseases. Our unique, comprehensive model of care, and our collaborations within an unparalleled and highly-coordinated research network, enable us to provide our patients with the latest discoveries and clinical trial opportunities. This leads to more effective treatments and ultimately takes us closer to cures.

We would appreciate the opportunity to show you in person why National Jewish Health is ranked #1 in Respiratory Care by U.S. News & World Report. Please let us know if you are interested in a Behind the Scenes visit by contacting us at 212.297.0857. Njhealth.org is also a good resource to learn about our work and the conditions we treat.

On behalf of our dedicated Board of Directors, Council of National Trustees, faculty, staff and the patients and families we serve, thank you for joining us at the Financial Industries Dinner. Your support provides the best care possible for those with respiratory and related diseases. Best regards.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Michael Salem". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

Michael Salem, M.D.
President and CEO

instead of the classroom. That was before our doctors taught him how to control his asthma. Nowadays, you'll find Kristian back at school, where he's discovered a passion for art.

At National Jewish Health, the nation's leading respiratory hospital, our pediatric specialists incorporate the latest research and treatments to help kids get back to being kids.

Our Mission since 1899 is to heal, to discover, and to educate as a preeminent health care institution.

We serve by providing the best integrated and innovative care for patients and their families; by understanding and finding cures for diseases we research; and by educating and training the next generation of health care professionals to be leaders in medicine and science.

Our Vision is to be the global leader in the research and treatment of respiratory, cardiac, immune and related diseases.

We pursue this vision by pioneering individualized medicine programs that embrace the paradigm shift from reactive medicine to proactive, personalized health care.
